

Robin Burch Bio

Born in Sanford N.C and raised in Pageland S.C was destined for Gospel greatness. Growing up in a musical family, Robin's mother a talented singer and ordained minister instilled a Love for music and ministry. Robin moved to Augusta Georgia and joined Watchmen Broadcasting TV-49 serving in various capacities, notably as a singer for The Club 36 show. Relocated to NYC and became part of Hillsong East Coast serving as a Choir member, Choir Director and a Marriage Connect Leader (alongside her husband). After a 27 year hiatus devoted to Family, and overcoming health issues Robin boldly returned to fulfill her dream of becoming a Gospel Recording Artist debuting in 2022 with "I Love the Way You Love me" Robin won New Artist of the Year at The Prayze Factor Awards season 15. The momentum continued with the inspiring EP "Finally Free" and dual wins in The Prayze Factor Awards season 17 in categories Urban Solo Artist of the Year and Praise and Worship Artist of the year. A captivating performer Robin commanded the main stage at The Prayze Factor Awards seasons 15 & 17 and musically Robin draws inspiration from her life experiences, her mother, as well as diverse genres and legendary artists such as Mahalia Jackson, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Diana Krall, Phyllis Hyman, Donna Summer, Bonnie Raitt and Sade. With a voice that heals and uplifts Robin seamlessly Blends Gospel, Jazz, contemporary and urban, to create soul stirring melodies. Get Ready to Experience The Power of Gospel Music Robin Burch Style and God inspired.